The Cuban Sympathy Resolution Will Be Forwarded

Without Comment, Other Than That the President is Asked to Do So.

State Department Officers Believe That Cleveland Will Take No Responsibility in the Matter—Should Cuba Be Recognized Difficulties Would Arise.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—State department officials do not believe that the president will have any hesitation in transmitting to the Spanish government the Cuban resolution without other comment than he is requested to do so by the action of congress. It is believed that he will not take upon himself any responsibility in the matter, but will let the responsibility for the reply which Spain can be relied upon to make to rest wholly with congress, the idea being that in passing what is nothing more than a resolution of sympathy the senate in particular is not thoroughly advised of the state of affairs in Cuba and the manner in which the war is being conducted. Secretary Olney and the president are thought to have fully informed themselves of the difficulties which would arise if belligerency were recognized by either the United States or Spain or by both. With such recognition Spain would at once be absolved from all responsibility on account of losses by foreigners in the island either from destruction of property or loss of trade, while it was not seen that the insurgents could gain by it. They also keenly appreciated that while it might be possible to compel the Spaniards to conduct their warfare in accordance with such human attitude towards captives as is universally recognized by civilized nations, it would be impossible to undertake the responsibility of guaranteeing the same line of action by the insurgents. This difficulty is heightened by the fact that the Cubans have no uniforms to distinguish them from lawless bands which are profiting by the general demoralization of the island to pillage and plunder broadcast.

In the Franco-German war the Germans shot all the Franchereurs they could catch without trial or investigation, and among the so-called belligerent rights in the combat of those two highly civilized nations either had the right and exercised it to kill all spies, dynamiters and others without uniforms on sight. Unless the United States can prevent the Cubans themselves from carrying on barbarous warfare state department officials declare that an attempt to compel Spain to act humanely will constitute a direct interference with Spanish sovereignty which is certainly not contemplated.

THE ENCAMPMENT.

Executive Committee Will Not Be Called Together Until February 29.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 31.—The St. Paul committee in charge of the G. A. R. encampment for 1896, received a telegram Thursday evening from Commander in Chief Walker at Indianapolis, stating that at the request of St. Paul he had postponed the calling together of the executive committee until February 29. This is taken to mean that St. Paul will in the end secure the encampment. The Chicago Great Western road has announced that it will grant the G. A. R. every concession it asks as to rates. The road has given notice to the Western association of its intentions and it was stated Thursday night that the Minneapolis and St. Louis road and one other road will follow suit Friday. This will break up the association and make a general scramble for business.

FOR PERJURY.

Wealthy Trunk Manufacturer of Chicago Under Arrest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Judge Ball Thursday morning sent to the grand jury a complaint against Joshua W. Bell, a wealthy trunk manufacturer of this city, charging him with committing perjury in his court in the trial of Harry Ross on a charge of stealing a diamond pin from Bell. Ross entered a plea of guilty, but when Bell was asked to identify him he swore he was not the man. Two police officers then swore that Bell had testified positively to the grand jury and in the police court that Ross was the thief. Ross was then discharged.

The Story Considered as Bosh.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Jan. 31.—Sheriff Whitecomb, as well as his deputies, consider the story that Geo. Tico, of Weesaw township, poisoned his wife as bosh, and simply trumped up by some newspaper reporter to create a sensation. The lady who nursed Mrs. Tico some days previous to her death, had no reason to suspect anything of the kind, and the matter of foul play never was hinted at by the neighbors in conversation with the officers.

Window-Glass Factories to Resume.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 31.—The window-glass factories which have been idle since January 11, will, it is said, resume on February 8. This announcement is made by the secretary of the Window-Glass Makers' union. The wage rate agreed upon at the special conference will remain in effect until the regular summer suspension, when it expires.

The St. Paul Still Aground.

LONG BEACH, N. J., Jan. 31.—The position of the steamer St. Paul remains unchanged Thursday night. The attempt to float the big vessel will be continued at every flood tide. Thursday night there was every indication that a storm is brewing.

Rev. Brooks Called to London.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 31.—Rev. John A. Brooks, one of the country's leading ministerial lights of the Christian church, has received a call to the pastorate of the Tabernacle at London, the largest congregation of that denomination in Europe.

"Cleanliness IN NEXT TO Godliness"

So they say. We can't call to mind at this writing who the author is of the above, but nevertheless you will acknowledge it is true. Of course that applies as well to the "teeth" and "face" as to anything else. We have the largest assortment of "popular tooth preparation" and "tooth brushes" also the largest assortment of "fine soaps" in the city. So next time you are in need of any of the above buy them of us and then you will be in line with "Cleanliness is next to Godliness."
